"This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice in it and be glad!"

Psalm 118:24

Sept. 22, 2018
East Lansing, MI.
It brings me great joy to gather with you today to celebrate a central truth of our Faith, a truth that can sometimes get “lost in the details” — that God’s desire for each of us, for the whole world in fact, is to be eternally happy with him forever in heaven. My prayer is that you will come away from this day renewed in your relationship with God and recommitted to the journey to holiness and open to the Holy Spirit who empowers us both to live the Gospel and announce it to others.

We begin this morning with a 3.8-mile Eucharistic procession from St. Mary Cathedral to the Breslin Center in East Lansing. This is an opportunity for us to witness to the world that we follow JESUS CHRIST, not just on foot in a procession, but every day of our lives through our thoughts, words and deeds. We really believe that Jesus is Lord — Let him reign!

I pray that you are inspired by the lineup of speakers this afternoon. I hope that you will also be inspired by the unique experience of being surrounded by thousands of other Catholics from our own communities who are committed to following Christ with their lives. I am confident you will find one or more things from this day that will bring you closer to God.

As we close this momentous day together with Mass and hear the final words, “Go and Announce the Gospel of the Lord,” I pray that those words will echo in our hearts and enliven our spirits so that, renewed and strengthened in our faith, we will reach out to people whom we meet and share with them the true happiness in Christ for which they were made.

Yours in Christ,
Bishop Earl Boyea

O Sacrament Most Holy

O Jesus, we adore thee
Who in Your love divine,
Conceal Your mighty Godhead
In forms of bread and wine.

Refrain
O Sacrament most holy,
O Sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be every moment thine!

O Jesus, we adore You,
Our Victim and our Priest,
Whose precious blood and body
Become our sacred feast.

O Jesus, we adore You,
Our Savior and our King,
And with the saints and angels
Our humble homage bring.

O Jesus, we adore You,
Come, live in us, we pray,
That all our thoughts and actions
Be Yours alone today.

O come, all you who labor
In sorrow and in pain;
Come, eat this bread from heaven,
Your peace and strength regain.
The Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary

The Joyful Mysteries are marked by the joy radiating from the event of the Incarnation. To meditate upon the joyful mysteries is to enter into the ultimate causes and the deepest meaning of Christian joy. It is to focus on the realism of the mystery of the Incarnation and on the obscure foreshadowing of the mystery of the saving Passion. Mary leads us to discover the secret of Christian joy, reminding us that Christianity is, first and foremost, evangelization, “good news,” which has as its heart and its whole content the person of Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, the one Savior of the world.
- Pope John Paul II

1. The Annunciation
Mary learns from the Angel Gabriel that God wishes her to be the mother of God and humbly accepts. (LUKE 1:26-38)

2. The Visitation
Mary goes to visit her cousin Elizabeth and is praised by her as “blessed among women.” (LUKE 1:39-56)

3. The Nativity
Mary gives birth to Jesus in the stable at Bethlehem. (LUKE 2:1-20)

4. The Presentation
Mary and Joseph present Jesus to His Heavenly Father in the Temple of Jerusalem forty days after His birth. (LUKE 2:22-39)

5. The Finding of Jesus in the Temple
After searching for three days, Mary and Joseph find the twelve-year-old Jesus sitting in the Temple discussing the law with the learned doctors. (LUKE 2:42-52)
Immaculate Mary

Immaculate Mary, your praises we sing;
You reign now in splendor with Jesus our King.
Ave, ave, ave, Maria! Ave, ave, Maria!

In heaven, the blessed your glory proclaim;
On earth we, your children, invoke your sweet name.
Ave, ave, ave, Maria! Ave, ave, Maria!

We pray for the Church, our true Mother on earth,
And beg you to watch o’er the land of our birth.
Ave, ave, ave, Maria! Ave, ave, Maria!

Chorus:
Sweet Sacrament, we Thee adore
Oh make us love Thee more and more
Oh make us love Thee more and more.

Had I but Mary’s sinless heart,
To love Thee with, my dearest King
Oh, with what bursts of fervent praise
Thy goodness Jesus, would I sing!

Ah, see within a creature’s hand
The vast Creator deigns to be.
Reposing, infant-like, as though,
On Joseph’s arms, on Mary’s knee.

Thy body, soul, and Godhead, all
O mystery of love divine,
I cannot compass all I have
For all thou hast and art are mine.

Sound, sound His praises higher still
And come, ye angels, to our aid.
‘Tis God, ‘tis God, the very God
Whose power both man and angels made.

Let us pray...
Lord our God,
in this great sacrament
we come into the presence of Jesus Christ, your Son,
born of the Virgin Mary and crucified for our salvation.
May we who declare our faith in this fountain of love and mercy drink from it the water of everlasting life.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion — inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

CATHOLIC COMMENTARY ON SACRED SCRIPTURE

Edited by: Dr. Peter Williamson and Dr. Mary Healy

“The Word of God is the source of Christian life, and the Catholic Commentary on Sacred Scripture is an ideal tool for living our faith more deeply. This extraordinary resource combines superior scholarship and a vivid, accessible style that will serve the interested layperson and the serious scholar equally well. It feeds both the mind and the heart and should be on the shelf of every committed Catholic believer. I highly recommend it.”

The Missionary Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe displayed in the concourse is one of four images in the world commissioned by the Basilica Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City to journey as Missionary Images on a Mission in the New Evangelization.

So, this image is rare, special and extraordinary! Because of her special commissioning it has traveled the world bringing many signs, wonders, conversions, healings and graces. This image, along with the other three, has manifested signs such as detections of a heartbeat of an unborn baby, confirmed by doctors and nurses with stethoscopes. The joyful woman has been known to shed tears of oil and holy glitter. God manifests these signs at his pleasure and delights to give them to help to strengthen our faith and our confidence in the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared in Mexico as the pregnant Mother of God to Saint Juan Diego, a Chichimeca Indian, on December 12, 1531. She left a miraculous image of her appearance on his tilma (a cloak), which still exists today for all to see in the Basilica Shrine in Mexico City. The Missionary Images measure 4’ x 6’ and are the exact size and color replicas of the original miraculous image.
Throughout Christian history, our Lord has shown us that he is really present in the Blessed Sacrament. Interestingly, many Eucharistic miracles have taken place as a result of someone doubting the Real Presence. The pictures that are displayed on the columns around the concourse come to us courtesy of the Real Presence Eucharistic Presence and Adoration Association.

We are highlighting almost 50 of the Eucharistic miracles that have happened all over the world through many centuries. All of them have received full approval by the Church.

Most Eucharistic miracles involve incidents in which the Host has “turned into human flesh and blood.” Of course, we, as Catholics, believe that the consecrated Host IS the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord, under the appearances of bread and wine. Therefore, Jesus, through these miracles, miraculously manifests His Presence in a more tangible way.
There is a display of relics from several different saints including St. John Paul II, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, and many others. This display was made possible through the generosity of a personal collector of sacred relics. You are invited to take some time today to venerate these holy relics.
The Shroud of Turin has long been venerated by the faithful and is believed by many to be the burial cloth of Jesus of Nazareth. The Shroud is one of the most scientifically studied religious icons in history. As science has progressed, so has the speculation on how the image of the crucified man of the Shroud was made.

The exhibit presents the results of a comprehensive scientific, historical and forensic study with numerous photographs and illustrations. The exhibit is the work of The Center for the Study of the Passion of Christ and the Holy Shroud and Monsignor Giulio Ricci and other scientists, who spent more than 25 years researching the Holy Shroud.

The centerpiece of the exhibit is a full-length replica of the Shroud developed from a photographic image of the Shroud made by the Eastman Kodak Co. The replica shows the front and back of the shroud. In addition, the mobile exhibit contains a depiction of a large crucified corpus showing the wounds of Christ corresponding to the passion narrative in the Gospel accounts and the wounds shown on the Shroud. The exhibit contains 92 panels detailing the history and science of the Shroud.
Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

This Mass fulfills your Sunday obligation and a plenary indulgence is available to you!

At the end of Mass, Bishop Boyea will administer a papal blessing, which comes with a plenary indulgence. The Apostolic Blessing, or papal blessing, is a blessing imparted by the pope either directly or by delegation through others. A bishop is empowered to impart the Apostolic Blessing three times a year within his own diocese in the context of a solemn liturgical celebration designated by the bishop himself. The blessing is imparted in place of the usual blessing at the end of Mass, using a formula that invokes the intercession of the blessed apostles, Peter and Paul.

A plenary indulgence is available to those who fulfill the following conditions:

1. Sacramental Confession within 20 days of the Apostolic Blessing.
2. Reception of Communion.
3. Pray for the intentions of the pope.
4. Freedom from attachment to sin.

It is granted also to those who are unable to be present at the rite itself and who instead follow it piously by live transmission over radio, television, or other means of social communication.
